

Fiona Dalrymple

TRADE PROGRAM

Meet the Artist

Fiona paints the mountains, trees and beaches of her beloved west coast. Playing with geometry and colour, she seeks to provide a fresh perspective of the rugged beauty of our wild places. Working from her home studio, Fiona's days are spent creating, parenting and dreaming of her next adventure.

The Trade Program

WHO IS THIS FOR?

Designers, businesses & accommodations wanting to order more than five prints

WHAT PRODUCTS ARE OFFERED?

- Archival stretched canvas prints
- Solid wood, custom float frames

WHAT IS TRADE PROGRAM PRICING?

Our trade program allows you to access special pricing depending on the number of prints you order

Canvas Prints

Our prints use archival quality materials and lightfast inks (giclee).

Canvas prints come stretched across locally sourced wood stretcher bars making them 1.5" deep.

They are protected with a satin coating of UV protective varnish that will last a lifetime.

Hanging hardware is installed for all stretched canvases so they are ready to display.

Frames

Our solid wood float frames sit 1/4" away from the sides of the canvas, allowing the viewer a glimpse of the sides of the piece while framing the overall work.

Natural wood is finished with a clear, protective wax to enhance the colour of the wood. White and black frames are spray coated with a durable matte paint for an even finish.

The Collection

CHOOSING
piece
FOR YOUR space

LANDSCAPE & PORTRAIT

Big or small, this orientation is a classic choice and brings the west coast to your space in an understated way.

Our printing process allows for these pieces to be curated to almost any size.

PERFECTLY SQUARE

Nothing could be more satisfying than a square.

Multiple pieces can be arranged horizontally or vertically, allowing for an exploration of individually curated paintings selected by you.

Small or big, a square is a statement piece.

Orientation Options

LONG & TALL

Sometimes a space requires a painting with more exaggerated dimensions. A tall wall or a large space over a bed requires just the right look.

Long and tall options provide just the right touch.
